

Special Programs in January and February

Intergenerational Gaming Day

Saturday, January 14.1-4.

Bring a friend or meet some new ones. Bring a game or play one from the library's collection. Whatever you choose, you are bound to have fun. All Ages.

Page Pals

Saturdays, January 28 and February 11. 10-12.

Calling Younger Readers! Come be read to, read with, chat, or game with teen and tween volunteers. Please preregister. Interested volunteer readers please call the Children's Department.

Cooking and Booking

Monday, January 23, Tuesday February 21. 4-5pm.

Join NECI students for, in January, a tale and taste of Chinese New Year and, in February, Mardi Gras in your mouth and on the page. For any age but attendees must preregister as supplies are limited.

Dungeons and Dragons

Mondays, January 30, February 6, 13, and 27. 3:30-5:30.

Join Dungeon Master Ben Matchstick for a month long campaign. For ages 9-12. Players must preregister and plan on attending all four Mondays.

Movie

Saturday, February 25, 1pm.

Kick off your break by kicking up your feet, munching on some popcorn and watching

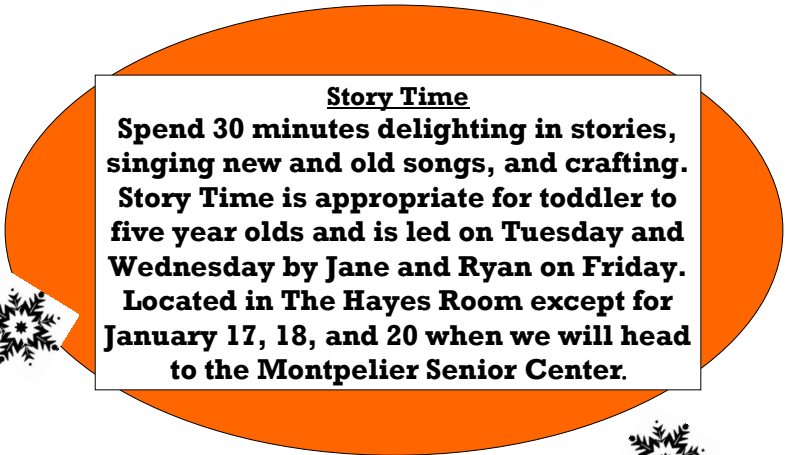

The classic 1967 version of Dr. Dolittle

YA Nights

Occurring on the third Friday of every month from 6-9 pm will be a night just for teens and tweens. Activities will include games, movies, eating, movies, hanging out, movies, crafting, and whatever else strikes our fancy. For ages 10-17.

January YA Night moved to the 13th (second Friday).

February 17.

Story Time

Spend 30 minutes delighting in stories, singing new and old songs, and crafting. Story Time is appropriate for toddler to five year olds and is led on Tuesday and Wednesday by Jane and Ryan on Friday. Located in The Hayes Room except for January 17, 18, and 20 when we will head to the Montpelier Senior Center.

Tuesdays After School

Jump into a different activity starting at 3:30 each Tuesday.

- First Tuesday of each month: Craftaculars. Get crafty with different craft projects.
- Second Tuesday: Gaming. Join Ryan to learn a new game or play an old favorite.
- Third Tuesday: The Legos Club. Take part in a Lego challenge or build your own masterpiece.
- Fourth Tuesday: TAG meeting. If you are a teen and want to make a difference at the library while having fun, stop in at the Teen Advisory Group.
