

KHL RULES OF CONDUCT

People who do not abide by these rules may be removed from the library and its premises. Library administrators may also enact temporary rules to respond to specific situations and will post any such rules in the library.

- The Library is for everyone to share. Your behavior in the Library must not infringe upon someone else's use of the space. Anyone creating disruptions or jeopardizing safety will be asked to leave. Disruptions include but are not limited to, physical or verbal harm, violating library policy, excessive noise, blocking aisles, stairs and doorways, stalking or staring.
- Children 8 years old or younger must be attended and supervised by a responsible person over the age of 16, other than Library personnel.
- Treat the library with care. Persons will be held responsible for damage or theft of library property including but not limited to damage to the building, grounds, gardens and trees. The library reserves the right to prosecute.
- Respect both conversational and silent spaces in the Library.
- Keep the library and grounds free of alcohol, smoke, and illegal activities. Persons who are, or appear to be, under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be asked to leave.
- Use headphones with audio equipment so as not to disturb other people.
- You may eat or drink anywhere except the Vermont Room and at the public computers, provided you do not leave wrappers, crumbs or debris behind.
- Only trained service animals or animals that are part of an approved library program are allowed in the library.
- Appropriate attire, including shoes and shirts, must be worn.
- Our phones are not for public use. We can place a brief call and leave a message on your behalf.
- Weapons of any kind in the library are prohibited, unless carried by a law enforcement officer.
- Soliciting in the library or on library grounds is allowed only with the express permission of the Library Administrators.
